RAILWAYS IN MANITOBA.

The report of the Minister of Railways and Canals presented to the Canadian Parliament contains some information respecting the progress of the construction of the Manitoba Railway. On the eastern section the first fifty miles of the line from Winnipeg to Lake Winnipeg, has been located, and the work of construction commenced. On that portion of the line between Thunder Bay, Lake Superior, and Winnipeg, which is necessary in order to provide a direct route to the North-West through Canadian territory, the line is open for a distance of 252 miles on the eastern and 113 miles on the western side. On the remaining sixty-seven miles rapid progress is being made. West of Winnipeg the line is open for traffic to a point 161 miles from that city, and the track has been completed as far as House Lake Creek, a distance of 40 miles from Winnipeg. From the latter place a branch of about 20 miles in length has been located in the direction of Fort McMurray, and the work for eighty miles is in progress. From Brandon there will be another branch passing in a north-westerly direction for 155 miles. On the portions of the railway in British Columbia the progress is also rapid. The report contains, in addition, much valuable information as regards the improvements that are being made in the Canadian canals, which, when completed, will enable sea-going vessels to pass to and from the great lakes.

THE CAZAR AND HIS SUBJECTS.

According to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Telegraph, Alexander II. now troubles himself very little with affairs of State, and his time at Gatchina is chiefly occupied in wood cutting, gymnastic exercises, and fishing. He would gladly get rid of General Ignatieff, whom he does not like, but he has no one to put in the General's place, besides which, Ignatieff is supported by Messrs. Aksakoff and Katkoff, who are in great favour with the Czar. The Russians are naturally prone to extremes, and being too friendly to the English, they are now leaning towards the French. It is in order to realize this ideal that Aksakoff, Ignatieff, and Skobeleff strive to wake up the national fanaticism of the people, even at the risk of a war. The official papers declare that Skobeleff's speeches do not express the opinions of the Russian Government, but says the correspondent there are now two Governments in Russia: the official one represented by M. de Giers, and the semi-official one represented by M. Aksakoff and his friends; and the latter is the most powerful of the two. "Russia is fast plunging into anarchy, and there is no one to save her. Government servants pluck the people more ruthlessly than ever, as if they felt that their days were numbered. On Governor Stakel, another harbours revolutionary sympathies. Nikolski, the other half-brother. The Government does not go beyond the products of the fortifications he has raised to protect himself against assassination; while outside there is a double Government, one set of Ministers and the other the other. War or revolution seem the only alternatives; and even a war would probably be followed by revolution. There is little to lose, and perhaps too much to gain. Never has the collection of money been so rapid as at present, or the feeling been so strong and general that a catastrophe is imminent."
